

Seeds of Change Microgrants

The Wisdom Council

1st Oct. 11:30 am - 6:00 pm

2nd Oct. 11:30 am - 4:00 pm

Seeds of Change Microgrants

The Wisdom Council

Ashik Krishnan

Ashik is a traveller, venture socialist, and weaver of people, communities and stories. Ashik is the co-creator of Travellers' University, an organisation that facilitates individuals to deepen their knowledge and understanding of themselves and the world by offering experiential learning opportunities through slow and conscious travel. Ashik designs and facilitates various travel-based learning programmes oriented towards imagining an inclusive and just world.

Seeds of Change Microgrants

The Wisdom Council

Ravi Ravichandran

Ravi is Interim exec. director of Technology Informatics Design Endeavour (TIDE), a Bangalore based NGO working towards a inclusive use of technology for climate action, skilling & livelihoods and water & sanitation management. He is also associated as a inclusive science resource with Prakriya Green Wisdom School.

Seeds of Change Microgrants

The Wisdom Council

Sameer Shisodia

Sameer heads Rainmatter Foundation and does deep dives on building a robust network of climate orgs. with strategic application of the funding and grants program. He left his long career in the tech industry a decade ago and partly moved to Coorg to experiment with sustainable farming, farm collectives, and his personal passion, rejuvenating soil and forests.

Seeds of Change Microgrants

The Wisdom Council

Shrishtee Bajpai

Shrishtee is a writer, activist, researcher working at the intersections of environmental justice, more-than human governance, indigenous worldviews and systemic alternatives. She is part of environment action group Kalpauriksh (India), Vikalp Sangam, Global Tapestry of Alternatives and serves on the executive committee of Global Alliance for the Rights of Nature.

Seeds of Change Microgrants

The Wisdom Council

Smitha Ram

In 2008, Smitha co-founded Rang De, India's first peer to peer lending platform that enables everyday citizens to invest in entrepreneurs from low-income backgrounds and create sustainable livelihoods. Smitha's belief in the power of civil society to influence change has been instrumental in shaping Rang De.

