Journeys with Bhoomiwasasis - Episode 2

Meet fellowship alumni of Bhoomi College who are on journeys towards becoming eco-leaders and holistic educators

REGISTER HERE
Journeys with Bhoomiwiwasisis is a space for anyone interested in alternative livelihoods to connect with Bhoomi College alumni, who after completing the Bhoomi Fellowship have been doing remarkable work in the following areas:

- Regenerative Farming and Afforestation
- Community and Grassroots Initiatives
- Eco-Consciousness and Urban Sustainability
- Holistic Learning and Alternative Education
- Environmental Research and Education

Join us for Episode 2 of the series on 1st Aug, 11am-1pm to hear their stories, know more about their projects and initiatives and what it means to be a 'Bhoomiwiwasi'.

www.bhoomicollege.org
Paras is a public policy professional with a focus on development challenges. He is a co-founder at Centre for Youth Culture Law and Environment which works with local communities and the government to improve implementation of public policies.

Hema is a passionate educator and Principal at San Marino Public School in Indore. She has been working with her students, introducing them to concepts like sustainable living, local culture and heritage and environment conservation.

Manvendra has been working in the field of Sustainable Agriculture and Native Forest Rejuvenation for over 8 years. He has worked on policy intervention, awareness projects and grassroots level work for various organizations.